Rosenthal, Levy, Simon & Sosa Attorneys at Law Represent Client Abuse Case Involving School Bus Aid on St. Lucie Public School Bus

Port St. Lucie, FL —March 24, 2025 — Rosenthal, Levy, Simon & Sosa Attorneys at Law, a trusted and experienced personal injury law firm, is representing a child who sustained personal injuries and abuse by a St. Lucie County Public School bus aid.

Our 9-year-old client has special needs and was aboard the ESE school bus with other students, the bus driver and bus aid when the bus aid become violent and aggressive towards our client causing personal injury. The entire incident was recorded by the client's sibling.

"This is every parent's nightmare. At Rosenthal, Levy, Simon & Sosa, we take the safety of children very seriously." said Managing Shareholder and Attorney Steve Simon. "There is no place for this type of violence by school employees in our school system. Experiencing this type of personal injury is traumatic for the entire family. We are dedicated to ensuring that our client receives the full support, care, and compensation they deserve,"

"We will take legal action towards all parties involved and we will fight for justice to prevent such incidents from occurring again," added Attorney Steve Simon.
