SOUTH FLORIDA LAW FIRM WELCOMES NEW SHAREHOLDER IN 2019

WEST PALM BEACH, FL - Rosenthal, Levy, Simon & Ryles is pleased to announce that effective Jan. 1, 2019, Luis A. Sosa has been elected to become a shareholder of the firm.

Luis is one of South Florida's youngest and most successful personal injury attorneys. Since joining the firm in 2014, he has fought in numerous trials including a most recently obtained verdict in excess of $900,000.

Since he can remember, Luis has been a volunteer with the Hispanic Human Resource Center in West Palm Beach and strongly believes that being involved in the community is just as important as representing it.

Born in Ciego De Avila, Cuba, and raised in West Palm Beach, Luis currently serves as the President of the St. Lucie County Bar Association (SLCBA) and is the youngest president the SLCBA has ever had. He has been named Top 40 under 40 by The National Trial Lawyers and was accepted into The Florida Bar's WM. Reece Smith Jr. Leadership Academy, Class VI.

"Luis has made outstanding contributions to our firm, and especially throughout the Treasure Coast, over the past four years and is well-deserving of this recognition," says Steven C. Simon, Managing Shareholder of the firm's Port St. Lucie office. "Not only has he exhibited impressive skills in representing our clients, but he has also demonstrated leadership in various community and professional organizations which will have a lasting impact on our firm."

After graduating from the University of Central Florida with academic honors, Luis earned his Juris Doctor at Barry University School of Law.
